STATE FRUIT GROWERS

Hold Conference With Reference to Making Exhibit at Boston Show.

A conference of persons interested in making an exhibit of Connecticut fruits at the New England fruit show to be held at Boston next Ogiober was held in room 50 at the capitol on Thursday. Those present represented the Connecticut Pomological society, the state board of agriculture, the experiment stations, the Connecticut Agricultural college and the state grange. The conference was called to saving charge of the arrangements for the uig show.

Prof. A. G. Gulley of the Connecticut Agricultural college was appointed a member from Connecticut of the Committee to arrange the premium list of the show, as secretary to have charge of the state correspondence in connection with the exhibition, H. C. Miles of Milford was appointed Most of the delegates present at the conference appeared before the comconference appeared before the commilitee on agriculture in the afternoon in support of the bill granting an appropriation to the Connecticut Fomological society to defray the expense of collecting and making a creditable exhibit from Connecticut at the New England show. It was explained that it is the intention to make a large and complete show of all the fruits that can be grown in this state and representing every section of Connecticut. senting every section of Connecticut. FOETRY.

OF POST-MORTEM PRAISES. I've noticed when a fellow dies, no matter what he's been—
A saintly chap or one whose life was darkly steeped in sin—
His friends forget the bitter words they spoke but yesterday.
And now they find a multitude of pretty things to say.
I fancy when I go to rest some one will bring to light.
Some kindly word or goodly act long buried out of sight;
But, if it's all the same to you, just give to me instead.
The bouquets while I'm living and the knocking when I'm dead.

Don't says your bisses to teacher.

MARY'S ANIMAL SHOW.

Mary had a little lamb—
"Twas Persian—on her cont;
She also had a mink or two
About her dainty throat;
A bird-of-paradise, a tern,
And ermine made the hat
That peruhed at jaunty angle
On her coffure, largely "rat."
Her gloves were muskrat, too,
Hor muft had heads and tails of half
The "critters" in the Zoo,
And when she walked abroad, I ween,
She feared no wintry wind;
At keeping warm, "twas plain to see,
She had all Nature "skinned."
—Thomas E. Orr, in Lappincett's for April.
